

University of North Georgia • Department of English
Inman Quill Awards

for

Best English 1101 Essay and Best English 1102 Essay

Writt. In addition to the distinction of having won the award, winners will be honored at the Faculty Assembly and a luncheon.

Also, each winner's essay will be published in the Inman Quill.

Judging Criteria:

A faculty committee will judge the papers, considering the following:

- Sophistication of Critical Thinking Skills
- Originality of Thought/Creativity
- Effectiveness of Expression
- Persuasiveness
- Writing Style

To Submit: Essays are due by 11:59 pm on January 22, 2024, for the Spring semester or Fall semesters 2024.

2. The paper must be revised so that:
  - it is free of instructor's comments and grade.
  - it is error-free and uses MLA format.
  - it does not include the student's or the instructor's name.
  - its context and purpose are apparent within the writing.

3. A single coversheet MUST be submitted with the essay. Please see the coversheet for more information.

4. Submit entry, as a single Word document attachment, by 11:59 pm on January 22, 2024. Your name should appear in the subject line. Kendra.sanderson@ung.edu

Questions? Please contact Kendra Sanderson at Kendra.sanderson@ung.edu

If you need this